OHSC Provider

Last week I sent out communication regarding the finalisation of the OHSC tender process and informed the community that School Plus has been successful in this process. After speaking with some of you this week I would like to provide some clarity around this process to ensure we all have a good understanding of how and why this happened.

This process was initiated last year. PCYC has been the provider at Corinda since 2011. All OHSC providers begin an initial term of five years after which the school has the option to extend their lease for a period of up to 9 years. After this time has elapsed (9 years) the lease is unable to be extended any further. At this point the Department notifies the school that the lease is coming to an end and the P&C are given the option of taking over the OHSC Program and running it themselves. If the P&C declines this offer (and this was the case at Corinda) the Department informs the school that a tender process must be undertaken. The tender was announced at a P&C meeting in September last year. At this time PCYC would have been made aware that a tender process was happening. In November, a decision was made to extend the time for the tender completion to the end of Term 1 2021.

The tender process is a very detailed and rigorous process. All offers have to be assessed under common criteria. This criteria includes fee structure, menus offered, programs, resourcing, community partnerships and staffing ratios and qualifications. The process is quality assured and supported by the procurement branch of the Department. The process like all processes is required to be undertaken ethically and without bias. The information that is provided in each applicant's tender document is the information that is assessed in the process.

PCYC have been caring for our children at OHSC for a number of years and we are very grateful for the work they have done in this space. I have spoken with School Plus and they are very excited to join our community. They are also interested in speaking to any current staff at Corinda OHSC who would like to remain here. School Plus has provided us with some introductory and important information which is included in this newsletter.

Communication

In all schools, a common thread is how much parents value timely and regular communication. Being a good communicator is a learning asset and has never been more important in our world. We give our students opportunities and strategies to become strong communicators and actively work to ensure we model good communication skills. We are all learners and can always improve in all that we do. Over the next weeks, as a school, we will be reviewing our processes from administration and leadership communication to classroom communication. Information that we provide to you and receive from you helps us create a strong partnership that supports our children as they learn and grow at Corinda State School.

NAPLAN

NAPLAN testing was completed last week. The transition to online testing went very smoothly at Corinda and our students engaged well with the digital platform. Thank you to all parents and caregivers for supporting your children during this time and also I would like to thank our NAPLAN coordinators Natalie Scott and Trudi Tobin and our IT Support, Chris Toovey who calmly and very successfully guided our teachers, who in turn guided our students, through the testing.

Staff Learning

This week our staff will be involved in a Twilight PD session. This session will run after school and staff will be attending four separate learning sessions. Sessions will focus on Assistive Technology Supporting our Learners, Inclusive Education, Trauma Informed Schools and Strategies, and Indigenous Perspectives. Further professional development in these areas will happen throughout the year.

National Sorry Day

National Sorry Day, or the National Day of Healing, is an annual event that has been held in Australia on 26 May since 1998. This day is a time to remember and commemorate the mistreatment of the country's Indigenous peoples, as part of an ongoing process of reconciliation between the Indigenous peoples and the settler population.

P&C Day 21 May

Last Friday was P&C Day and I would like to thank all members of our P&C for the hard work and support they provide our school. Special thanks to all who came along on Sunday morning for the grounds working bee. The school and P&C work in partnership to deliver the best for all students. I encourage you to support the P&C in any way that you feel comfortable.

Winter is Coming

The cooler mornings have arrived. With this comes the wearing of jumpers, jackets and scarves. The days do get warmer and students tend to take off their warm clothes. Please ensure that all clothes are named. This is the season when the lost property box overflows. We remind all students to be responsible with their property but names on clothing items makes it much easier to help lost clothing find its way home.

Have a wonderful week.

Assessment Literate Learners – Why?

“The illiterate of the 21st century will not be those who cannot read and write, but those who cannot learn, unlearn and relearn.”

Alvin Toffler

Our key improvement priority, developing Assessment Literate Learners was chosen to prepare Corinda students for an ever changing and developing world. We want our students to be well quipped; to have the tool sets, skill sets and mindsets to be able to question, create, adapt, meet and cope mentally with the changing and challenging demands they may face in the future.

In order for students to become assessment literate learners, teachers make learning visible to them, by modelling and demonstrating what is required to be successful with a task or meet an achievement standard. The tools are a variety of metacognitive and cognitive strategies that assist and propel student learning, especially when faced with challenge. Thinking Routines, self-talk, problem solving strategies and graphic organisers are used in classrooms to promote this.

We want our students to build a repertoire, realising that:

Not all tools work for all problems

They have choice over which tools to use

They should replace tools that are not working – trying something else

Characteristics of Assessment Literate Learners

Know where they're going

Have the tools for the journey

Monitor their progress

Recognise when they are ready for what's next

Know what to do next

How are we going?

Teachers and leaders regularly check-in to see how students are going by asking:

What are you learning? What is your goal?

Why are you learning it?

How are you going with that?

What is your next step?

Where can you go for help if you need it?

You might like to ask your children too

SchoolPlus News

Published by Corinda State School

To the Corinda families

School Plus is delighted to partner with Corinda State School to provide a high quality Outside School Hours Care service.

School Plus Foundation is a dynamic and innovative Not for Profit provider of Outside School Hours Care (OSHC) services in South East Queensland. Since 2012 it has grown rapidly to 16 services and has established a reputation as the market leader for quality with schools, parents and students responding positively to the high quality, tailored approach to OSHC.

Our commitment to quality is reflected in the exceptional results obtained during independent Assessment and Rating under the National Quality Framework (NQF) with 70% of assessments achieving an Exceeding rating (Industry average 12%) with 100% rated Meeting or Exceeding (Industry average 83%) – the highest of any major OSHC provider in Queensland.

The factors that drive this result and our reputation are:

- Our Children First Approach – We aim to create an atmosphere where all children feel comfortable, secure and happy, through fostering high self-esteem and confidence in all students. We consider the safety and wellbeing of children to be our highest priority.
- The Best Staff, Resources and Program – Your students deserve the best. School Plus' reputation is built on high quality in its stimulating programs, nutritious menus and abundance of toys, equipment and other resources. This is all supported by the best educators who embrace ongoing professional development and understand that friendly and engaging educators provide the right environment for kids to learn and have fun. We recruit for attitude and train for excellence.
- Flexibility and Agility – Our services are tailored to the individual schools, rather than a “one size fits all” template.
- Communication and Relationships – Our services are built and delivered on open communication with school management and parents, through regular face to face meetings, formal surveys and feedback.
- Our Customer Focus – Hassle Free and Value for Money – Technology is used to reduce the hassles for the parents and schools. Forms are easy, enrolment is online, and we use iPads to sign students into and out of the service. This, combined with low fees and very favourable terms and conditions, provides value for money for all parents using the service. We have a “no surprises” approach.

This approach has generated outstanding feedback and had tremendous results with the other 15 school communities we have worked with.

We would like to also thank PCYC for their significant contribution to the Corinda community and we will be working closely with them to ensure a smooth transition for families. We will be encouraging existing staff to apply for a role with School Plus.

We look forward to you joining the School Plus family and hearing your students “Laugh out Loud, learning through play”.

MaKey MaKey Learning in Year 6

In Year 6 we have been learning much about MaKey MaKey circuit boards.

The MaKey MaKey is an electronic kit that allows you to use everyday objects to control computer keys. Using alligator clips attached to any conductive material you can control the keyboard of your computer, such as the space bar, arrow keys and left click of the mouse.

I came up with the idea of creating a joystick to use with the MaKey MaKey because I knew that a joystick would be a good way to control the arrow keys. So far, I have made three prototypes and the third prototype has an added button for the space key.

My next challenge is to finish coding my Scratch game. My game has objects floating across the screen and you avoid these objects by moving the arrow keys (I use my joystick). You can also fire balls at the objects to protect yourself, using the space key (I use my button). I am also coding a scoring system, which adds points to the scoreboard when you hit an object.

In making these prototypes, I have realised that a lot of STEM activities can be improved and taken to another level. All it takes is some imagination and creativity. At times, it can be frustrating but I just take a step back and have a look at what I have made to see what the problem is. Then I make changes to my design and retest my prototype. I enjoyed making this project because it taught me a lot about joins and connections and it let me turn something simple into something more complicated.
